We are compelled to omit a large portion of our reading matter to-day, owing to the very heavy pressure of advertisements on our columus. So many were offered us yesterday that we were compelled to "bog off" about six o'clock in the evening, and we were compelled to allow over two columns to lie over until

CITY NEWS.

Sale of Forgitto Large.—Deputy Auditor Bell sold forfeited lands, yesterday at the Court-house, to the amount of $76 50.

Police Court. — Judge Lowe examined thirty-three cases at the Police Court yesterday morning, but they were wholly uninteresting in their nature and of a class whose importance is not sufficient to entitle it to a single paragraph.

ELEGANT HATS.—B. R. Alley, 41 Broadway, makes fine dress hats suitable for old and young. His late introduction proved a coup d'eat in his line. He now invites the attoution of our citizens to his stock generally, feeling assured if they give him a call they

GRAND LARCENY.—Justice Bell, yesterday, issued a warrant at the instance of Thomas H colscott, who resides some place on the Ham-ilton-read, charging J. K. Hancock and John Fisher with stealing one hundred dollars in bank bills on the night of Monday last. The parties have not as yet been arrested, and it is now so late it is more than probable they have escaped, at least for the present.

STUFFED BIRDS .- A sale of stuffed birds, arranged on sprays under glass shades, will take place this morning at the auction rooms of Jacob Graff & Co., No. 18 East Fourthstreet. The variety embraces the most beautiful of the Western States, South America, and the West Indies. They also sell at the same time bronse and papier mache goods and paintings, suitable for heliday presents.

FIRE YESTERDAY MORNING .- About eight o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in a two story frame building, situated on Fifth-street, between Broadway and Pike, nearly opposite McAllister-street, and occupied as a dwelling. The Fire Department was promptly on the ground, and succeeded in arresting the finmes before a great amount of damage had been done. The loss to the building and furniture will probably reach $500, upon which, we believe, there is no insurance.

Another Wair Picked Ur on the Tide of Life —A newly-born infant, whose Hindoclike mother had abandoned it on the corner of Harrison-road and Brighton-street, was taken up on Thursday morning half frosen, by some officers. Some persons in the neighborhood have taken, and, for the present, will care for it; but they have already as many children as they can well attend to; and, although the life of this infant has been saved for a little time from a wreck upon the coast of life, it will in all probability again become a waif, unless some benevolent hand will undertake to guide it until it has become able to do this for itself. ANOTHER WAIF PICKED UP ON THE TIDE OF

BOARD OF CITY IMPROVEMENTS .- At the BOARD OF CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—At the regular semi-hamdomadal meeting of the Board of City Improvements, held yesterday morning, the sealed proposals for grading and Macadamising Brown-street, from S.J. Brown's west line to the north corporation line, were opened and laid on the table. The Commissioner of the Northern District was authorized to repair the culvert under Dunlap-street, between Forbus-alley and Henry-street, at a cost of $7: Also, to repair the cuivert under W-stern row, between Freeman and Bay-miller-streets, at a cost of $13. Also, to reset the well hole plate at the corner of Wes row and Clarkson-street, at a cost of $1.50.

Also, to set the well hole plate at the corner of Baymiller and Clearwater-streets, at a cost of $2.50.

Also, to reset the well hole plate at the corner of Sycamore and Milton-streets, and pave the intersection, at a cost of $7.

SENTIMENTAL NOTICE OF BRAUTIPUL GIPTS .-The accounts on our book of life for '59 are about to be closed. We look back over its pages, and find many loved one's life balances drawn. Do you remember that little trinket passed to their credit—a gift on moments of the past? How dear it is to you now. A heart treasure embalmed in your memory.

As the branches of a tree returns the sap to the root, and the river pours its water into the sea from whence springs its supply, so will a grateful nature repay any favor it may receive; for he who gives wisely decreases the number of his griefs and warms his own heart. Then hasten to close the year with a balance in your favor. Present your friends with a picture—there is nothing better. It is always before them—a kind of window in your bosom through which they may gaze upon your generous heart. If not that, a stereoscope and views, or a transparency. Christmas presents at Bonte & Co.'s, 184 Walnut-street.

SUDDEN DEATH OF AN AGED WOMAN-CORO-NER'S INQUEST.—Coroner Carey was called upon yesterday afternoon to hold an inquest apon yesterday afternoon to hold an inquest apon the body of a woman aged about sixty, named Mary Hayley, who died at her residence, No. 21 Melanethon-street, quite suddenly, on the night of Thursday last. From the evidence adduced before the jury the circumstances of her death were these: When the eldest son of the woman went to suppor he sound his mother somewhat unwell, and complaining of a pain in the head, but she did plaining of a pain in the head, but she did not seem ill, and after ten he went back to not seem ill, and after tea he went back to his business. Upon returning, about twelve o'clock, he found the door locked, and rapped quite loudly for some time but received no answer. Failing to awake his mother, who was alone, he opened the window and found her lying with her face downward upon a trundle-bed, quite cold and dead.

No marks were found upon the body, and it appeared in the evidence that the woman was highly esteemed in the neighborhood and much beloved by all who knew her. The jury rendered a verdict of death from debility and old age.

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST A POLICENAN .- A teamster named Henry Holtskamp, yesterday afternoon caused a warrant to be issued by afternoon caused a warrant to be issued by Justice Bell for the arrest of a policeman named James Franklin, charging him with assault and battery. It appears from the statement of the prosecuting witness, that he was driving down Western-row and was on the track of the Passenger Street Raffroad Company, and was overtaken by one of the cars at the corner of Court-street. He made an endeavor to leave the track, but in consequence of the grade and the slippery condition of the street, he failed to do so as quickly as could have been desired, as his wagon was quite heavily laden and he feared some accident.

At this moment Franklin came up and At this moment Franklin came up and dragged him from his heres, turned his wagon to one aids of the way, thereby endangering the lives of the animals and the safety of his vehicle, and beat and abused him in a manner which he deemed outrageous. The case will be heard on Monday next at two o'clock, and the defendant will then have an opportunity of giving his version of the story and his excuse, if he have any, for the treatment he bestewed upon the complainant.
